PRESS RELEASE

Biriș Goran wins again the prestigious real estate “Law Firm of the Year” award at the CIJ Gala

Bucharest, 8 December 2014. Biriș Goran is excited to announce that it won again the "Law Firm of the Year" distinction at the CEE Construction and Investment Journal Gala on 4 December 2014. This is the third CIJ award for the Biriș Goran team, having previously won the award in 2012 and 2010.

Construction and Investment Journal is Central and Eastern Europe's leading real estate publication for investors and property professionals (www.cijjournal.com) and the gala has become a milestone event, viewed as the most prestigious awards ceremony for the real estate industry in Romania.

Biriș Goran was voted by over 150 real estate professionals across the country and the region (and whose results were audited by a Big Four firm) and prevailed over several seasoned competitors on the market that were also nominated for the award: David & Baias, Dentons, Reff & Asociatii and Wolf Theiss. As such, the CIJ Gala and the awards are benchmarks for the Romanian real estate industry.

Victor Constantinescu, head of the real estate practice and co-managing partner of the firm, stated: "This award is an ongoing endorsement of our efforts to offer value-added service to our clients and treat their problems as if they were our own. The award means a lot to us, and it motivates us to continue to strive."
