

NEW PARTNER

Mariana SIGNEANU

Press Release

Bucharest, the 9th of April 2021

Mariana Signeanu is the new Partner with Biriş Goran

"It is our pleasure to announce the promotion of Mariana Signeanu to Partner within our firm's Banking and Finance practice", declared Gelu Goran, Co-Managing Partner with Biriş Goran, adding that "it is a well-deserved promotion and a recognition of her professional maturity and market reputation".

With 15 years' experience, Mariana has been involved in numerous real estate and non-real estate financings, finance restructurings and alternative financings where she assisted major international developers and leading financial groups on projects ranging from loan restructuring to financing and refinancing or project and asset financing.

She is also a well-established specialist in title investigations, acquisitions, as well as ancillary contracts and documents related to real estate development and transactions, acting in numerous high profile real estate projects.

Mariana holds a MSc in law and finance from Queen Mary University of London.

The portfolio of Mariana's clients holds major local and foreign players in the real estate field, but also in energy, food, agricultural or hospitality business. Mariana is an efficient negotiator and a seasoned professional, bringing to the table experience, flexibility and smart, integrated solutions – finance, real estate and banking.
